

THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 15.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Brittany raises very fine horses. They are rendered docile and tractable through kind usage. The paraisip is the chief food of the horse there, and it is believed to contribute materially to the vigor and beauty for which the horses of the country are remarkable.

This year the southern counties of California sent to San Francisco 5,350,000 oranges, 620,000 lemons and 80,000 limes. The consumption of California is about 10,000,000 oranges a year, and 5,000,000 are brought from Mexico and the Pacific Isles.

The health of the poet Longfellow is reported so precarious that he does not attempt to accomplish any literary work whatever, but takes exceeding care of himself. He is a constant sufferer from acute neuralgia.

As far back as 1740 London had a daily evening newspaper, sold at one farthing, and entitled the Evening Post. The making of farthing newspapers may be reckoned among the last arts.

How best the farmer's simple life;
How pure the joy it yields;
Far from the world's tempestuous strife,
Free midst the scented fields.

A lost Englishman is advertised as "subject to fits, and resembling the German Emperor."

The Montpelier Female Humane Association, chartered by the Legislature of Virginia and the Circuit Court of Orange county, proposes, by a series of Grand Gift Concerts, to establish and endow a "Home for the Old, Infirm and Destitute Ladies of Virginia," at Montpelier, the former residence of President James Madison. The Association is under the control of eight trustees, six of whom are elected biennially by the stockholders and two appointed by the Governor of Virginia.

References by permission: His Excellency, James L. Kemper, Governor of Virginia; His Excellency, Gilbert C. Walker, ex-Gov. of Va.; Hon. Robert E. Withers, Lieutenant Governor of Virginia and U. S. Governor's Office, Richmond, July 3, '74. It affords me pleasure to say that I am well acquainted with a large majority of the officers of the Montpelier Female Humane Association who reside in the vicinity of my home, and I attest their intelligence and their worth and high reputation as gentlemen, as well as the public confidence, influence and substantial means liberally represented among them.
